

KANGEN UKON®

The Golden Root of Okinawa.
A Powerful Business Opportunity.

WHY KANGEN UKON[®] MATTERS

A traditional natural herb supplement crafted with care, quality, and cultural heritage.

Turmeric has been valued for centuries for its antioxidant benefits.

Kangen Ukon[®] elevates this tradition by bringing together:

- Pesticide-free, pristine Okinawan cultivation
- A unique blend of Spring and Autumn Ukon
- The purity of alkaline-reduced Kangen Water[®]
- Complete processing at Kangen Foods Okinawa

WHAT MAKES KANGEN UKON[®] DIFFERENT

Pure. Balanced. Premium.

Kangen Ukon[®] stands apart for its exceptional formulation and production:

- 100% cultivated and processed in Okinawa
- Spring Ukon for essential oils and daily balance
- Autumn Ukon for rich curcumin content
- Cleansed with Strong Kangen Water[®] and Strong Acidic Water
- Produced under strict HACCP*-quality standards
- The first turmeric softgel made with Kangen Water[®]
- Individually sealed for freshness and protection

HACCP (Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points) is an internationally recognized system that ensures safe, controlled, and contamination-free food manufacturing.*

INSIDE THE KANGEN UKON[®] CAPSULE

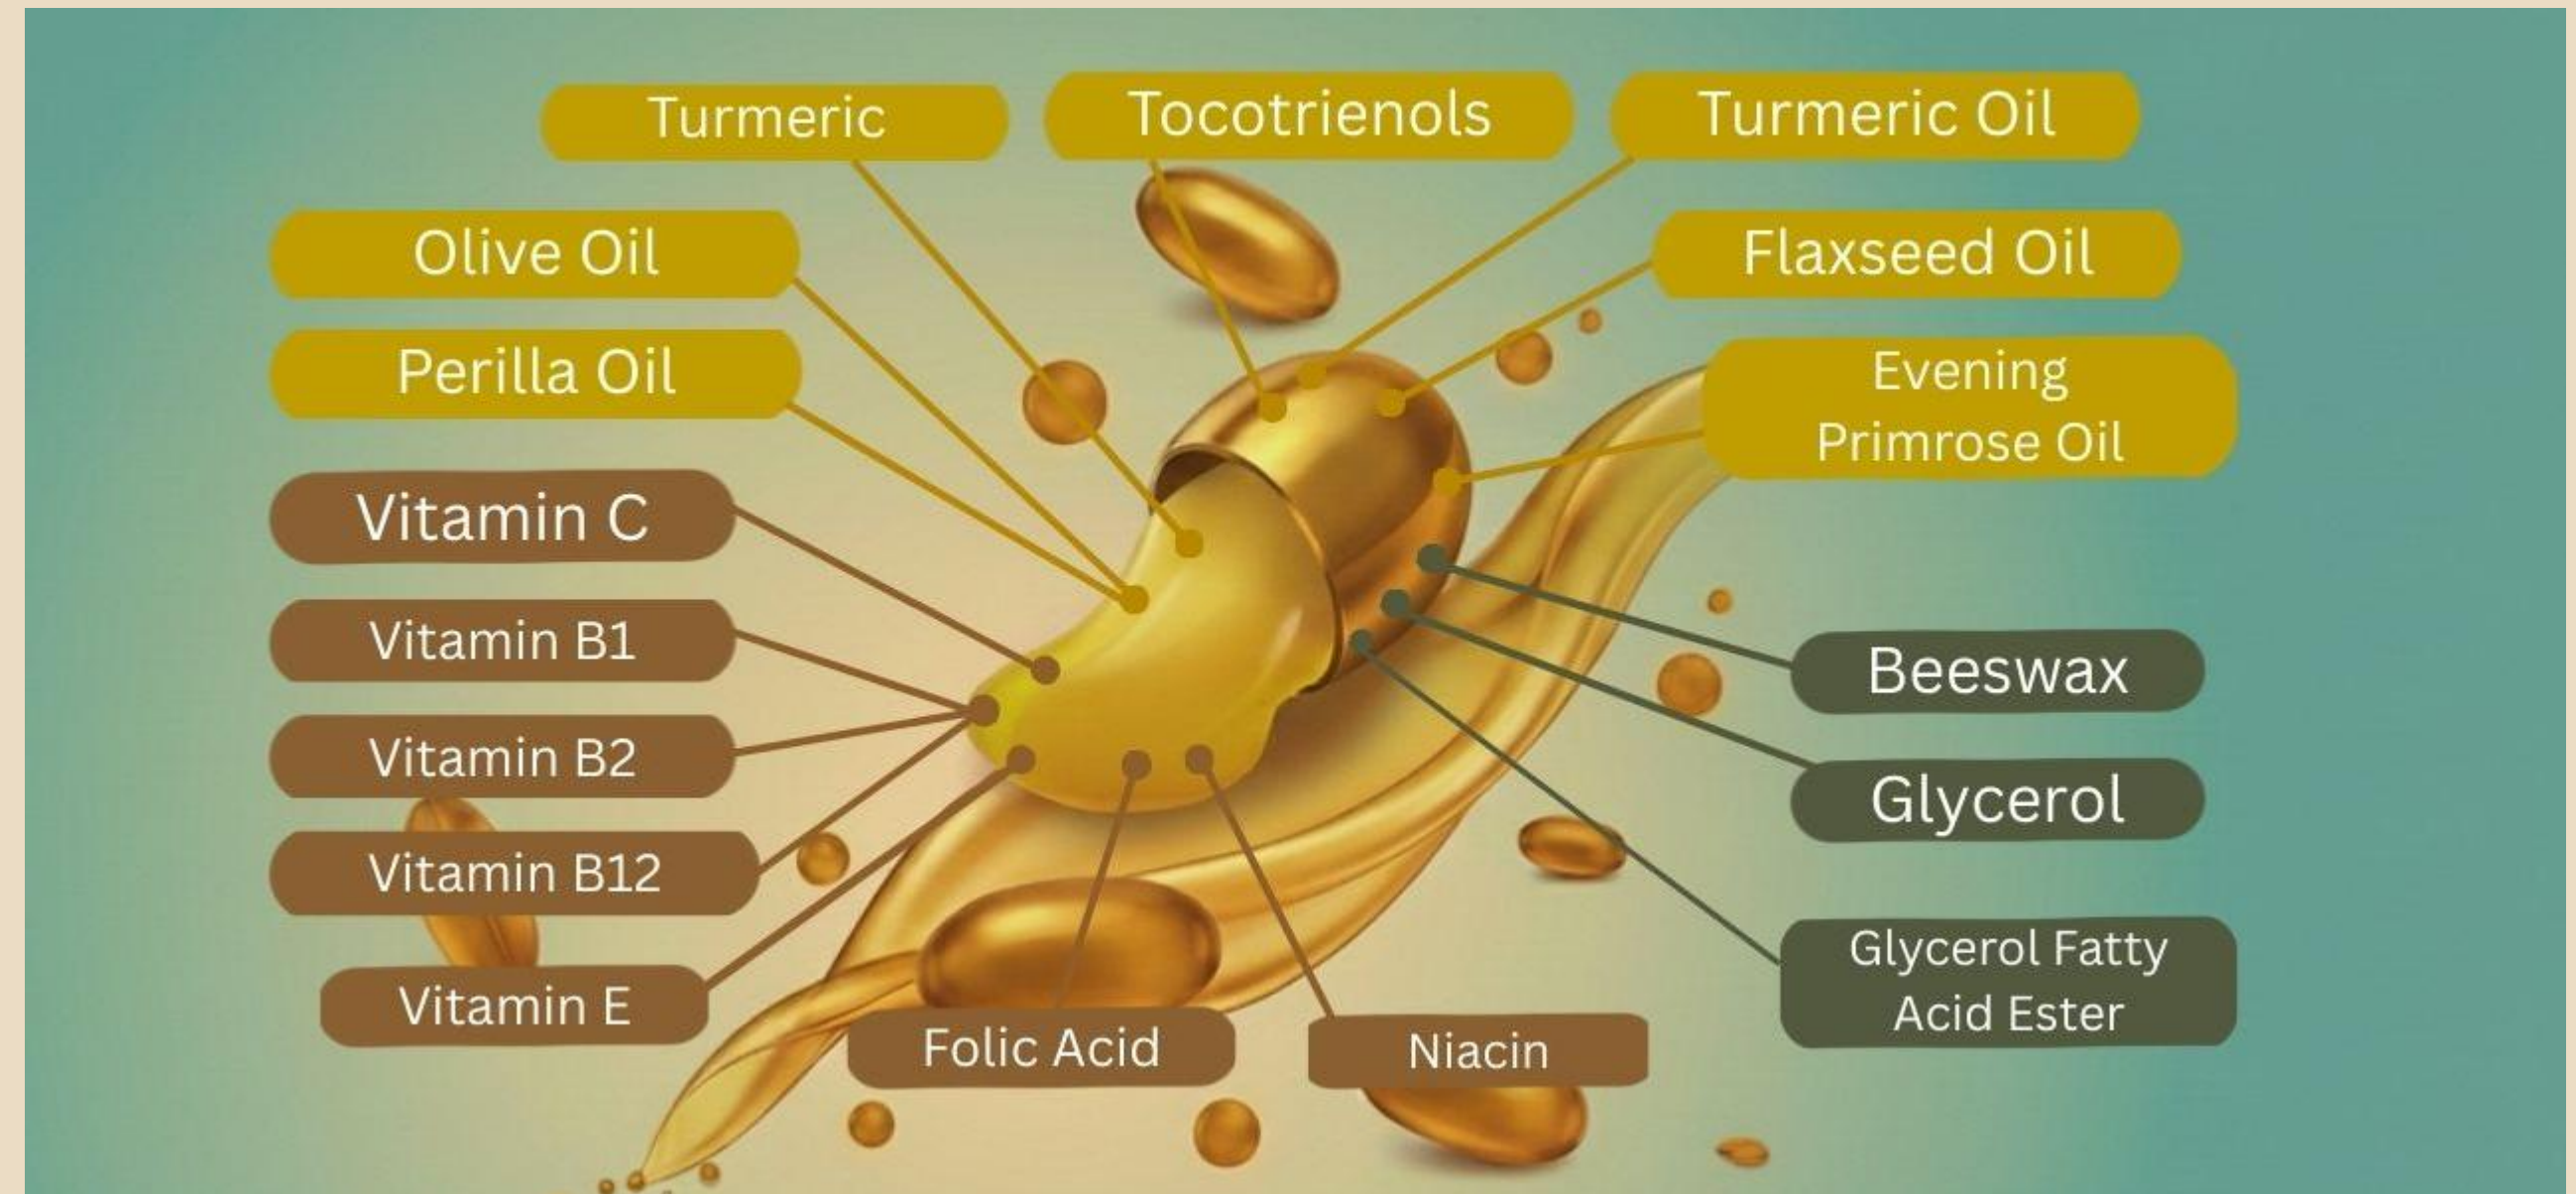

Carefully Selected Ingredients

Each softgel contains a thoughtful blend of Okinawan turmeric and antioxidant-rich ingredients designed to support daily balance and vitality.

More than half of the formulation is made with ingredients combined with alkaline-reduced Kangen Water[®] to ensure purity and freshness.

Every capsule reflects Enagic's dedication to craftsmanship, quality, and the power of Kangen Water[®].

THE UKON PRODUCT LINE

Everyday Essentials Inspired by Okinawan Tradition

Kangen Ukon Capsules

Curcumin-rich Okinawan Autumn turmeric blended with Spring turmeric essential oils for balanced daily support. Individually sealed softgels help maintain freshness, purity, and convenience for everyday use.

Kangen Ukon Tea

Crafted from Autumn Ukon, naturally high in curcumin to support daily wellness. Its mild, earthy flavor pairs well with daily routines. Each tea bag can be brewed with Kangen Water® for a smooth, refreshing experience.

Kangen Ukon & Honey Soap

Handcrafted using the traditional kettle-boiling method. Formulated with Ukon, honey, Okinawan citrus (Citrus Depressa), and muscovado sugar for a gentle, natural cleanse. Made with Kangen Water® and biodegradable ingredients that are kind to both skin and the environment.

Three ways to enjoy the benefits of authentic Okinawan turmeric.

FROM FARM TO WELLNESS

Eco-Friendly from Soil to Packaging

Kangen Ukon begins in the lush Yanbaru region of Okinawa.

More than 270 local farmers cultivate Ukon using pesticide-free methods.

Each harvest is carefully processed at the Kangen Foods Okinawa factory, ensuring purity, safety, and traceability from soil to capsule.

A product rooted in tradition and crafted with intention.

From cultivation to production, Kangen Ukon reflects Enagic's respect for nature and commitment to sustainability.

Kangen Ukon is more than a premium supplement.
It is also one of the simplest and most effective ways for distributors to build consistent, long-term business growth.

A wellness product your customers love, an opportunity that supports your success.
